A native Texan, Ben joined Norman Wohlgemuth in April 2020 after practicing law in Colorado for nearly 6 years. Ben's practice areas include all areas of family law litigation including divorce, custody, alimony, child support, adoption, grandparent rights and name changes. In addition, Ben is experienced in handling cases related to Guardianships, Conservatorships, Probate, Criminal Defense, and Personal Injury. Ben received a BA in History and a minor in Business from the University of Texas at Austin and graduated from South Texas College of Law in Houston, Texas in 2013. Ben worked as an associate attorney at Jolein Harro, P.C. from 2014 until 2020 when he joined Norman Wohlgemuth. When he is not working, Ben's hobbies include workout classes, hiking, and tennis. On weekends, you can find him at the dog park with his two Australian Shepherds. Ben is committed to finding a solution in every dissolution.
