Jo Lynn Jeter joined the firm in 2004. Her practice consists primarily of business litigation in state and federal courts. She has been involved in a variety of litigation matters involving employment defense, business disputes, contract disputes, civil rights, oil and gas, bad faith insurance defense, legal malpractice defense, misappropriation of trade secrets, unfair trade practices, embezzlement, antitrust and torts. She is also involved in the drafting and review of various commercial contracts and business transactions.

Ms. Jeter took a six-month leave of absence from the firm in 2008 to serve as a judicial law clerk for the Honorable Gregory K. Frizzell in the United States District Court for the Northern District of Oklahoma. During law school, Ms. Jeter gained experience working as law clerk at a litigation firm in New York City and as a legal intern for the general counsel of Oklahoma Farm Bureau.
